Reporting procedure

- Fly the Q flag on entering UK territorial waters.
- Complete sections i and iii of Part 2 of this form.
- Phone the National Yachtline on 0845 723 1110 when you arrive. They will tell you what to do.

Tell the National Yachtline if:

- VAT has not been paid on the vessel
- you have any goods in excess of the travellers' allowance listed or you have on board goods which are to be treated as duty-free stores
- you have cash equivalent of 10,000 euros or more to declare
- you have any prohibited or restricted goods, a list of the most common of these is shown below
- there is any notifiable illness on board
- there are any people on board who need immigration clearance, or
- any repairs or modifications, other than running repairs, which have been carried out since the vessel last left the FLI

Do not take down the Ω flag until Customs have given clearance.

Allowances

Alcohol

1 litre of spirits or strong liqueurs (over 22% abv), or 2 litres of fortified wine (such as port or sherry), sparkling wine or any other alcoholic beverage of less than 22% abv. You may combine these allowances, provided that you do not exceed your total alcohol allowance.

In addition you may also bring back: 16 litres of beer and 4 litres of still wine.

Tobacco

200 cigarettes, or 100 cigarillos, or 50 cigars, or 250g of tobacco.

You may combine these allowances, provided that you do not exceed your total tobacco allowance.

Note: You cannot combine your alcohol and tobacco allowances and if you are under 17 you cannot have the alcohol and tobacco allowances.

Other goods (including gifts and souvenirs)

The other goods allowance (for example, perfume and electrical goods) for passengers travelling by private plane or boat for pleasure purposes is £270.

There is no allowance against single items valued above £270, duty and/or tax will be due on the whole value.

Passengers cannot aggregate the 'other goods' allowance to bring in items valued above £270.

Prohibited and restricted goods

The importation of certain goods into the UK is prohibited or restricted, and examples are given below.

If you have goods in your personal possession or in the stores of the ship which may be subject to prohibition or restriction you must declare them on this form.
